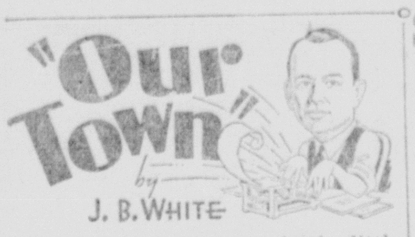
INJURIES BRING GLOOM TO THE YOEMEN



One hundred years ago in the little village of Florida, Mo., Mark Twain was born. He was a newspaper reporter and never got beyond the high school. Long a controversial figure in American literature he has at last been accorded a place among the great writers of the western world.

From the current issue of the New Republic we repeat two quotations from Mark Twain.

First, is his description of the development of war hysteria, published in the "Mysterious Stranger":

There has never been a just one, never an honorable one—on the part of the instigator of the war. I can see a million years ahead, and this rule will never change in so many as half a dozen instances.

The loud little handful—as usual—will shout for war. The pulpit will, warily and cautiously, object—at first; the great, big, dull bulk of the nation will rub its sleepy eyes and try to make out why there should be a war, and will say, earnestly and indignantly, "It is unjust and dishonorable, and there is no encessity for it?"

Then the handful will shout louder. A few fair men on the other side will argue and reason against the war with speech and pen, and at first will have a hearing and be applauded; but it will not last long; those others will outshout them, and presently the anti war audiences will thin out and lose popularity.

Before long you will see the curious thing: the speakers stoned from the platform and free speech strangled by hordes of furious men who in thei rsecret hearts are still as one with those stoned speakers—as earlier—but do not dare to say so.

And now the whole nation—pulpit and all—will take up the war cry, and shout itself hoarse, and mob any honest man who ventures to open his mouth; and presently such mouths will cease to open.

Next the statesman will invent cheap lies, putting the blame upon the nation that is attacked, and every man will be glad of those conscience-soothing falsities, and will diligently study them, and refuse to examine any refutations of them; and thus he will by and by convice himself that war is just, and will thank God for the better sleep he enjoys after his process of grotesque self-deception.

The other quotations from Mark Twain is the famous "War Prayer," which he wrote over thirty years ago. It is as follows:

O Lord our God, help us to tear their bloody soldiers to bloody shreds wit hour shells; help us to cover their smiling fields with pale forms of their patriot dead; help us to drown the thunder of the guns with the wounded, writhing in pain; help us to lay waste their humble homes with a hurricane of fire; help us to ring the hearts of their unoffending widows with unavailing grief; help us to turn them out roofless with their little children to wander unfriended through wastes of their desolated land in rage and hunger and thirst, sport of the sun flames of summer and the icy winds of winter, broken in spirit, worn with travail, imploring Thee for the refuge of the grave and denied it— for our sakes, who adore Thee, Lord, blast their hopes, blight their lives, protract their bitter pilgrimage, make heavy their steps, water their way with their tears, stain the white snow with the blood of their wounded feet! We ask of One who is the spirit of love and who is the ever faithful refuge and friend of all sore beset, and seek His aid with humble and contrite hearts. Grant our prayer, O Lord, and Thine shall be the praise and honor and glory, now and ever. Amen.

Starting Team Is Shattered With J. B. Gilbert Out

The Yoemen were facing the most severe test of the season Friday night with gloom thick and oppressive in the camp.

When the whistle blows at Rosebud Friday night at 8 o'clock Gilbert will not lay his toe against the ball to kick it across the goal.

Yesterday the big Yoemen end stepped on a broken bottle in the gynasium and had to be treated by Dr. W. R. Newton, Jr. The glass almost penetrated through the foot. He may not play again this season.

Joe McLean, ace back, was injured in the Granger game and if he plays at all, his drive will be impaired. Captain Breeding who has been suffering impairment from a left knee injury has a right knee injury now and may not be able to play. Shirley McLean, the only first string man avilable to take Gilbert's place, is also injured. Louie Turner, half back, was able to play in the Granger game Friday, but has been out long because of injuries.

Coach Wood is closing up the the ranks and marching on. He will have the remnant of a great fighting team on the field Friday night against Rosebud for the fifth conference game of the year.

"On to Rosebudd" is the battle cry. Cameron will give the team and the visiting city the largest crowd of the year.

Judge Graham Gillis has set the hearing down for that date. Attorneys will finally complete their motion by amendment on the day of the hearing. The motion filed thus far embraces the usual pleas in such cases.

Marble Machine Status Unchanged

The Amarillo Court of Civil Appeals has ruled in the opinion recently received by the tenth court of Civil Appeals in Waco that Civil Courts have no jurisdiction over marble machines, if they are gambling devices. The Tenth Court of Civil Appeals at Waco recently dissolved an injunction pertaining to the operation of marble machines in Limestone county and added in their opinion the machines were illegal.

Some three or four days past the operators of marble machines in Dallas, Texas, had a complaint against marble machines filed in the Criminal Courts purposely to decide once and for all their legal status and until the case goes through the Criminal courts, there will be no definite kowledge as to whether or not they are illegal.

Will Rogers Film "Steamboat Round" Bend' Here Sunday

Will Rogers' last great picture, "Steamboat Round the Bend," will top the screen bill at the Cameron Theater Sunday.

The great star who died in a plane crash in a lonely valley far out in the Alaskan wastes with Wiley Post, has a supporting cast that brings to the picture some of the best talent in the business. Irvin S. Cobb, Ann Shirley and Stepin Fetchit are among them.

Stanley Swift got the Rogers film shortly after it was released following his death. It is a story of Mississippi River days and the role fits the great humorist who is said to give the greatest performance of his career.

NEW CHEVROLETS ON DISPLAY NOVEMBER 2

New Master de luxe and Standard Chevrolets for 1936, embodying marked advances in styling, engineering, and performance will be introduced November 2 at the New York Automobile show and at the Grabein Chevrolet Company at Cameron, already liberally stocked with new models for display and delivery.

Completeness in equipment, in appointments, and in convenience is stressed in the company's 1936 announcement.

The Master De Luxe, offered with either knee action or conventional springing has been restyled in more important appearance elements, notably by the adoption of a higher and narrower grille of distinctively original design, in combination with a new treatment of the hood louvres, new style headlamps mounted on the sides of the radiator shell, and new interior trim.

The lower priced Standard models have been completely redesigned in chassis and bodies. Last year the Standards differed materially both in appearance and construction from the Masters; this year, the two lines are identical in all major features of styling, engineering, and performance, the chief difference being only a matter of wheelbase.

Two burglar alarms were put out of commission by cutting and disconnecting wires. Entrace was made by a ladder placed against a window and sawing the bars. Escape was made at the rear door where a lock was broken.

Postoffice inspectors were on the job Thursday morning to investigate. Sheriff Kennedy was also working on the case.

Banish Drunken Drivers.

Increasing fatalities on the highways of the United States should cause every reader of the Herald to be interested in a statement of David Beecroft, former president of the American Society of Automotive Engineers. He insists that "the driver and not mechanical failure is at the bottom of most accidents" and asks "what is the use of testing the machine and not the driver?"

Moreover, at a meeting of the American Safety Congress, recently held in Louisville, Ky., seven volunteer subjects were tested for reactions after taking a single cocktail and the ability of each subject was "slowed up." Obviously, if the mind of an automobile driver slows up when he ought to be putting on the brakes to meet an emergency something is going to happen.

This brings us the question—"Is alcohol responsible for the rise of the death rate on the highways?" The answer may not be conclusive but the evidence is fairly postive and the only uncertainty is what are we yoing to do about it. How long will the public permit auto driving by drunks and near drunks to be overlooked and winked at by law enforcement officials?

One of the features of the meeting of the Safety Conference was a mock trial of a fictitious person accused of "driving while drunk." He pleaded not guilty but testified that he only had drunk "two bottles of beer."

Dr. H. A. Heise, of Milwaukee, as an expert witness, testified that he had tested the defendant at the police station tnd that, while the man talked clearly, there were symptoms of the use of alcohol in his walk and on his breath and that the tests showed 0.3 per cent of alcohol in his blood. As a qualified expert, he added that 0.2 per cent could affect the reactions of an automibile driver. The jury of 123 delegates voted 85-38 for conviction.

Some Competition Ahead.

Cameron, in our eyes, is getting along in life, making progress enough for us to crow, occasionally in depression years, over less favorable surrounding places where people live in urban areas.

We also have the idea that Milam County is a place of some means, possessing property after a fashion able to pay taxes. And such might be the case.

Like other sections of the nation we know that we have the best climate, the finest people, the greatest natural resources and the most wonderful opportunities for strangers who have money to invest. To lack such belief is to stamp us as unpatriotic locally and subject us to much petty anoyance on the part of the loud mouthed boosters who have little except enthusiasm to be recommended.

Not to take the wind out of the sails of local navigators but merely to give them an ideal of the competition they are against in this great nation of ours we remind them that the city of New York has nine buildings assessed for taxation at more than $19,000,000 each. Together they are "worth" $209,000,000.

The Business Outlook.

Most of the citizens of Milam County are interested in the business outlook of the nation as a whole although, primarily, they are interested in the welfare of themselves. It does not necessarily follow that prosperity will come to Milam County at the same time that the nation witnesses an industrial boom or a surging stock market. However, the chances are that some evidences of the prosperity of others will be felt here even if only individually through a better market for our products.

Last week some hundreds of sales executives met to consider the business outlook of the nation and expressed the unanimous belief that the long upswing of recovery is definitely under way. Significantly, there was no dissent whatever as to the encouraging outlook for 1936 although considerable discussion resulted when causes for the upward movement were stated and when individuals made an effort to outline the proper course for business itself to pursue.

It is not the purpose of this article to debate the wisdom of the policies set up and pursued by the Administration during the past few years. Whether they were right or wrong and to a large extent regardless of the outcome of the presidential election next year, most of the regulatory and restrictive laws affecting business will be retained. Assuming that this is correct, it has seemed to us that business leaders generally might as well accept what has been done and adjust their plans to new conditions.

Along this line, we call attention to the statement of Clarence Francis, Executive vice president of General Foods Corporation, who declares, "if there is going to be a substitantial and enduring recovery," the business men must pull themselves out in spite of their wonderment and disbelief in many activities going on today. He declares, "It's our job and, to date, we've fallen down on it."

Science Is Interesting.

The men of science are always interesting even though sometimes they go so far back into the past that the average man or woman wonders where they learn their stuff.

With this observation we call your attention to the recent statement of Professor A. S. Furcron, geologist of Western Reserve University, and D. W. Carter, head of a diamond tool company. Both agree that unconfirmed discoveries of diamonds on the shore of Lake Erie present proof that many years ago glaciers, passing over Canada, carried many precious stones over the country.

Moreover, the idea is that Canada was a jungle in days "before nature began to form gems in South Africa" and, consequently, should contain "greater deposits of riches than the comparatively new Dark Continent." Apparently the glaciers may have deposited in some areas of the United States precious stones that now lie buried and undiscovered.

Experts Ruin A Game.

Now that horseshoe pitching has been taken from the ally and the barnyard to a position second only to golf among the sports patronized by all men, and summer resort hotels with access to golf courses also possess horseshoe pitches, of whatever they are called, a great wrong is being done this fine pastime. As it was in golf, so it is in the realm of ringers and leaners—the amateur is being discouraged.

The federal census does not record how many Sunday golfers have broken or given away their clubs and retired from the game with a lifetime average of 112 because they have read too much about the feats of Bobby Jones or Lawson Little. It would make an interesting investigation.

Now the occasional pitcher of horseshoes is treated to the performance of Ted Allen, of Alhambra, California, world champion. Mr. Allen, who uses a one and a quarter turn toss, allows a man to sit on the stake, and without disturbing him, proceeds to throw one ringer after another. He stands a man with a paper bag on his head in front of the stake and pitches a shoe which removes the bag and pins it to the peg. He allows two men to interpose a blanket between himself and the stake and tosses an infallible succession of ringers over it.

Since reading about Mr. Allen, we have forsworn horseshoes.

Country Firemen.

Rather tardily a movement begins to prevent the heavy losses from fire in the rural districts. During the last year 3,500 persons perished and property losses amounting to $255,000,000 occurred because of the burning of farm homes and other buildings.

Until quite recently the hastily-formed bucket brigade afforded the only fire protection in the districts outside municipalities. Because the buildings were isolated, their total loss was usually expected when fire broke out.

But with the improvement of highways and the general use of telephones, it has been found practicable to organize rural volunteer fire departments. Under the new conditions, such facilities are able to afford protection for all buildings within a radius of 10 or 12 miles of the department headquarters.

Also much has been gained for safety by teaching youths of the 4-H Clubs to make periodic inspections of farm buildings to remove fire hazards. Some of the money appropriated for the benefit of agriculture might well be spent in perfecting means of lessening fire risks, providing fire-fighting equipment and helping in the organization of local fire departments.

The Expense of Speed.

One of the interesting discoveries with regard to automobile motors is that when you step on the gasoline your gasoline expenditure mounts with your speed. Thirteen makes of automobiles were tested to find out if it applied to them all. The result was uniform, disclosing that oil as well as gasoline consumption mounts.

The following is the tabulation of tests announced by the American Automobile Association:

30 miles an hour, 18 miles per gallon.

60 miles an hour, 12.6 miles per gallon.

80 miles an hour, 8.6 miles per gallon.

Oil consumption is seve ntimes as great at 33 miles as at 30 miles.

This is, we suppose, no concern of a person who starts out on a trip at 80 miles or more per hour. Doubtless he never worries about the bill—his widow can take care of it out of the insurance money.

Farm Implement Sales.

"The farm implement industry," says a report from Pittsburgh, "has been running at high rate since late in the fall of 1934 and has prospects of doing well for an indefinite time." This is mentioned as an important factor in the improved prospects of the steel industry.

Another statement of like kind comes from the September bulletin of the National City Bank of New York. It says: "Farm buying last fall and this year gave the start to the industrial improvement."

Reasons for better times among the farm folks may be debated, but if the causes can be determined it will be the part of statesmanship to promote them, or at least permit nothing to hinder them.

All that Geneva is up against at this time is keeping an African local tournament from spreading into a World Series

Nothing came of the California lawsuit involving 20 septillion dollars. Even the New Deal has ignored it in its spray the wealth plans.

A fan dancer in Los Angeles complains that the police are picking on her. It will continue, we suppose, until the pin feathers are removed.

Something unusuual in the way of coronations will be that of George of Greece, as he is not expected to fly to Washington with a cherry pie.

Just Six Years Ago.

Wall Street paused last week to recall the break in stocks six years ago served notice that speculation would not pay and that talk could not keep a nation prosperous.

Today, by contrast, traders are worried, fearing that the present upturn may get out of hand, sail aloft upon frenzied speculation and collapse with terrifying effect.

The possibility exists. Millions in idle money and billions in credit form are available if the public decides to gamble on market advances rather than to accept the dividends earned. Once the buying mania begins there will be unjustified increases in the price of favored stocks until selling orders wipe out paper profits.

Frankly the inherent greed of the average citizen is the danger. Without heeding the lesson if four years of depression men and women will risk their resources in a chance at a get rich quick manouevre. They will attempt to get a fortune without working hard for it, and, in the end they will come again bnoeaETAOHII they will once again beg their government for a chance to work for a living.

YOEMEN RUN WILD TO BEAT TWISTERS HERE 35 - 6

FOURTH CONFERENCE VICTORY WON EASILY BY WOOD'S TEAM

The prestige of an invinceable goal was lost here Friday night when the Granger Twisters late in their third quarter got away with an end play and made the first score against the Cameron Yoemen in 1935. The Yoemen badly outplayed the Twisters and the final score was Cameron, 35, Granger 6.

The first quarter was a wild scoring fest with 20 points etched on the board. Thereafter came two more touchdowns in the course of the game.

Belton Wins

While the Yoemen were taking their fourth conference game from Granger the Belton Tigers were playing havoc with the Rose garden at Rosebud. The Black Panthers could not withstand the passing attack of Belton and along with the Yoemen the Tigers make up the other half of the undefeated District 31 B contenders.

Belton's passing attack was nothing short of phenominal. Its line was also a sure defense against Box, the Panther flash who was able to make little gain. All eyes turn to the Belton-Cameron game on November 15 at Belton.

The game with Granger here Friday was a run away for Coach Wood's Yoemen.

Prikryl kicked to Joe McLean on the 15 yard line and the Cameron back returned the punt 15 yards.

Cameron's Ball

Lott stopped McLean at the line of scrimmage for no gain. On the next play a pass from McLean to Breeding was good for a first down on the Granger 5 yard line. On the next play Perrin snapped the ball to Stewart who fumbled and Granger recovered.

Granger's Ball

Perrin and Stanislaw threw Lott for a 1 yard loss. On the next play Lott gained 4 yards around right end before he was stopped by Gilbert and Stewart. A fumble by Prikryl was recovered by Stanislaw for Cameron.

Cameron's Ball

McLean got four yards at center. On the next play John Davis, fleet Yoemen back on a reverse play went around right end for a touchdown. It was a long and sensational run. Gilbert kicked the extra point and score was Cameron 7, Granger 0. Gilbert kicked to Prikryl on the Granger 5 yard line and the Twister back returned it 15 yards.

Granger's Ball

Stanislaw stopped Prikryl for no gain. Crawford, end for Cameron, got a fumble made by Cotton on the Granger 4 yard line.

Cameron's Ball

McLean tried a pass but it was no good. Joe picked up a yard at center. A pass from Joe to Simmie Smith was good for a touchdown and Gilbert kicked the extra point. Score Cameron 14, Granger 0. Gilbert kicked out of the end zone and the ball was placed on the Granger 20 yard line.

Granger's Ball

Prikryl failed to gain through the line and Cameron drew a 5 yard penalty for offsides. Stanislaw threw Salyer for a two yard loss. Prikryl got one yard in a sweeping run around right end. He was stopped by Davis. Lott got 2 yards at right end. Prikryl kicked and the ball was killed on Cameron's 45 yard line.

Cameron's Ball

McLean made a first down over left tackle. McLean made 4 yards in a line play, fumbled the ball and it was recoered by Stanislaw. Joe threw a pass that was incomplete. On a fake play Joe got three yards thru center. Joe then got two yards over left guard. On the next play McLean passed to Gilbert and the Yoemen end made a touchdown. Gilbert kicked goal but Cameron drew a 15 yard penalty when Mode, Yoemen guard, was adjudged holding. The play was called back and Gilbert could not make the extra point from the 17 yard line. Prikryl kicked to Smith on the 10 yard line and the Cameron back ran the ball down 18 yards for a good return. Score Cameron 20, Granger 0.

Cameron's Ball

McLean made 7 yards over right tackle. Smith went around left end for a first down. Smith failed to gain at left tackle as the quarter ended. Score Cameron 20, Granger 0.

SECOND QUARTER

Cameron was penalized 15 yards as McLean got three yards at center. McLean quick kicked out of bounds on the Granger 38 yard line.

Granger's Ball

A pass by Lott was no good. Prikryl kicked to Cameron's 48 yard line where the ball was killed.

Cameron's Ball

Stewart got one yard at center. Smith got 4 yards at right tackle. Smith made 4 yards at right tackle. McLean kicked out of bounds on the Granger 37 yard line.

Granger's Ball

On the first play Salyer attempted to go around left end. He was tackled by Shirley McLean and fumbled. He recovered but was thrown for an 8 yard loss by Stanislaw. Prikryl kicked out of bounds on Granger's 46 yard line. The ball landed in the Cameron water bucket.

Cameron's Ball

Smith got one yard at center. On a lateral at left end Smith lost two yards. McLean got 3 yards at center. McLean kicked and the ball was killed on the Granger 16 yard line.

Granger's Ball

Gilbert playing heads up football tackled Vitek back of the Granger goal for the first safety score of the year. Score Cameron 22, Granger 0. Prikryl kicked from his 20 yard line and the ball was killed on Cameron's 42 yard line.

Cameron's Ball

McLean failed to gain at center. Stewart got two yards at center. McLean gained 2 yards at right tnd. McLean kicked and the ball was killed by Stanislaw on the Granger 14 yard line.

"Mr. Weiss, has a small brown and gold fountain pen been turned in?"

"No, John," replied Mr. Weiss. "This green pen is the only one which has been found and given to us, but you may come around later and see if your pen has been found."

John valued the pen highly and went back to the office several times, but his pen was never returned. Many students have the same experience when they lose anything of value. This happens so often in our school that it is not possible that the articles are not found; they are just not handed in.

When you find something that has been lost, place yourself in the place of the owner and think of the joy he or she will get from recovering the lost possession. Let's make our school in that we will have a fair chance of recovering anything we lose.

SIX WEEKS' GRADES ISSUED

The regular six weeks' report cards were handed to pupils of Yoe High School Wednesday of last week, October 23. The grades, as a whole, were satisfactory, according to the superintendent, E. A. Perrin.

The pupils should use this opportunity to check their weaknesses and resolve to make improvements where they are needed.

HONOR ROLL

Below is listed the pupils who are on the Yoe High School Honor Roll and also those on the Ada Henderson Grammar School Honor Roll.

Since a new method for determining Honor Roll has been worked out, it is worthwhile to make an explanation.

Heretofore pupils have been placed on an A or B Honor Roll, but this year only one Honor Roll will appear rather than two.

Those to be included on the Honor Roll will be determined with the use of a grade point system:

A plus indicates 6 points; A indicates 5 points; A minus indicates 4 points; B plus indicates 3 points; B indicates 2 points; B minus indicates 2 points; B minus indicates 1 point; C and below 0. A total of 4 subjects with Physical Education 18 points; 5 subjects without Physical Education 17 points; 5 subjects with Physical Education 20 points.

The Ada Henderson School points required from the third through the 7th grade will be 45 points and below the third grade will be 30 points.

It is thought that this new method of arriving at credits will do greater justice to the pupils.

NOTES FROM THE OFFICE

Earl Peck, who was ineligible for the Granger game here last Friday, has put his work in order and is now eligible for entry in the Rosebud game Friday night November 1.

According to statements from the office at the close of the first six weeks term of school, disciplinary problems have been scarce in the high school. W. C. Wiese, principal, and E. A. Perrin, superintendent, say they are exceptionally pleased with the behavior shown by the pupils.

ELIGIBILITY RULES FOR INTERSCHLASTIC EVENTS ARE ANNOUNCED

Rules govering the manner in which all pupils of the Cameron schools may make up failing grades, a copy of which is given below, were handed to the teachers of the schools during the past week by E. A. Perrin, superintendent:

The interscholastic league rules provide that in order for a pupil to be eligible to compete in and interscholastic league event he must be passing in three and one half subjects in the high school, and three fourths of his work in the grammar grades from the beginning of the semester or term to seven days prior to the contest.

It becomes necessary for the superintendent to determine a policy governing the administration of this rule which shall govern the entire student body and not only those pupils who participate in the Interscholastic activities. With this purpose in view the following policy will be adhered to and the teachers are respectfully requested to observe the same.

1. When grades have been entered upon grade sheets they will not be changed, except the teacher shall have convinced herself that the grading of the paper was incorrectly done or that the figures computed in arriving at the grade were wrongly computed.

2. The above ruling makes the grade, when it is once entered, complete. Consequently the only way a failing grade can be brought to a passing grade will be through a sufficiently high grade not yet recorded averaged in with a failing grade which has been recorded to bring it to a passing grade.

3. Ruling number two does not preclude a pupil going back and getting up work which he has neglected. However, value for such work will be given in the current grade, (unrecorded) and not in the failing recorded grade.

4. Pupils who are participating in Interscholastic League Work will not be granted a special privilege, nor will individual pupils, whose parents have made special request that their children be granted special opportunity to bring up work, be given special opportunity to bring up work.

5. All pupils of the school will be given equal opportunity to raise any failing grade under equal conditions, said conditions to be determined by the individual teacher.

6. Pupils once declared ineligible for participation in Interscholastic League Contests by the office shall remain ineligible until the teacher in whose subject or subjects the pupil has failed has notified the office that the current work of the pupil is sufficiently high such that when it is averaged with the recorded failing grade the present standing of the pupil is passing since the beginning of the semester or term.

Refreshing Relief
When You Need a Laxative

Because of the refreshing relief it has brought them, thousands of men and women, who could afford much more expensive laxatives, use Black-Draught when needed. It is very economical, purely vegetable, highly effective. . . Mr. J. Lester Roberson, well known hardware dealer at Martinsville, Va., writes: "I certainly can recommend Black-Draught as a splendid medicine. I have taken it for constipation and the dull feelings that follow, and have found it very satisfactory."

SCHOOL CARNIVAL

The San Gabriel PTA is sponsoring a school carnival Friday night November 1. There will be attractions of every sort and all that goes with carnvials. Come enjoy bingo, fish ponds, all good eats and Kitty Kats and try your luck.

TEACHERS MEETING

The first teachers meeting was held last week and each teacher presented his motive of improving his school work now and in the future. Discussions were under the following heads:

Mr. Wood: General introduction to individualizing school work.

Mrs. Culp: Individualizing reading.

Mrs. Griffith: Individualizing spelling.

Miss Wofford: When should a child begin to read?

Miss Camp: Individualizing English.

Other teachers will conduct the program at the next meeting to be held November 7 at 3:30 p. m. We urge parents to visit and to learn more about what we are attempting and striving hard to do.

THE KIDDIES COLUMN

The true "Halloween Spirit" prevails in the elementary rooms this week end and each room lends a spooky atmosphere.

The third grade under the direction of Miss Marrell has wiches, owls, scarecrows, bats and many other spooky things. It would be awful to be left in the room after dark.

The second grade room gives one a creepy feeling too. The wicthes seem to be all flying right at you. Miss Griffith must know all the ghosts as her youngsters have each variety hanging around in the room.

Mrs. Culp's room—the first grade, has its spooky charms also. The youngsters are brave ones to feel at ease with all the "ghostly" figures around.

Each of these rooms is attractively decorated in the Halloween gaities and the different projects found in the rooms show that the youngsters are alert and always at work.

NEW ENGLISH WORK FOR ENGLISH III CLASS

As an outside project, the students are interviewing different people for the purpose of getting stories of Indian days, Civil War Days and of local legends. The stories are written and handed in each Wednesday. From time to time examples will appear in our Pirate Tales column.

The boys of the English III class are making replica of Fulcher's Bluff, showing the bluff, river and surrounding details. A write up will accompany this exhibit telling of the death leap of Peter Mercer. The girls have made a plot of the Locklin cemetery, located the grave of Peter Mercer and are reproducing the tombstone which marks the burial place.

Johnnie Kunz will give the complete history of the San Savier Mission. He will reproduce in miniature forms the growth and changes of the mission. Each weekly theme will be a chapter in the project and he is constructing his reproduction from clay, rock and various resourceful materials.

The English II Class has just completed the contracts on punctuation. As one assignment of a part of contract punctiation, students were asked to turn in humorous poems about punctuation. The following represent some of the work:

PUNCTUATION MARKS

Bring the paper and write upon it!
Period, here we come!
Colon cocks his highland bonnet,
Comma beats the drum.
Semi colon commands the party,
Dash leads the rear;
Pens in time, alert and hearty,
Each for grammar cheer.
—Dorothy Anness.

PUNCTUATIONS

With a comma here,
And a semi colon there,
You'll have a sentence
With any to compare.
With unity here
And emphasis there,
You'll find a sentence
Fair and square.
—Verna Jo Garner

ped. During the Franklin game locker rooms were entered and $10.50 was stolen. This sum was returned to the boys after the game out of the gate receipts.

L. E. Mabe, father of Edgar, hastily got in his car and left when Lunsford sought to arrest his son Friday night. Edgar is in jail. The father was arrested later at his home near Rockdale but escaped when he entered the house on pretense of getting a key for officers to enter another room.

Liquor Found

In searching the house officers found 200 gallons of mash and a small quantity of whiskey. Believing the men guilty of the former offense during the Taylor-Cameron game, premises were searched but no tires were found.

Sheriff Kennedy, Deputy Clarence McCall and Mason Longmire, deputy city marshal, followed Mabe to his home. Edgar Mabe faces charges and is being held in jail here.

CAMERON COLORED SCHOOL

The attendance in the colored school is unusually good. Teachers report very few absent or tardy.

The PTA recently staged a drive in which $64 was raised to purchase togs for the football team. Nolastine Roberts, a freshmen girl, sponsored by B. A. Thomas and W. M. Limbrik led the contest by raising $21.65. Georgia Hall, a senior sponsored by R. E. Hall and R. A. Westbrook, came second raising $20 85.

The Cameron Bulldogs in their new suits were badly defeated by the ferocious Temple Tigers Thursday night here.

Miss Lydia Marak from San Barnadenia, California, it at home visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marak at Ad Hall. Miss Marak has been in California two years and this is her first visit back. She plans to return within the week to her work. She enjoys the Herald each week and looks forward to the news it brings from her old home. She likes California and does not plan to return here for some time.

Armistice Day and ending Thanksgiving Day, the chairman reminded members of the added respinsibilities.

"Because the Red Cross is neither altogether a govermental agency nor wholly a private one," he said, "it has a unique place in American life in this era when economic and physical relief must be given to many people, in all communities.

"Under our charter obligation we must be prepared to act in times of emergency, and we hae to carry on in the name of the American people the service to War veterans and service men pledged in our charter.

"Organized as we are, in 3,700 chapters and 9,000 branches all over the United States, and having trained staff and thousands of volunteer workers ready to handle disasters, the Red Cross is in a position to give instant and effective work in every day life of our communities. Services to handle all present emergency needs and training for leaders for the future, are included in the departments of Red Cross service.

"Disaster relief stands guard every day and night, year after year. Last year Red Cross relief was given in 128 disaster areas in the continental United States.

"Home service for veterans and service men and their dependents is a strictly community service. Many chapters actually bring in to their communities, through claims work, more money per annum than the total asked by the chapter from the public for the entire chapter program.

"First aid and life saving is an educational service, which gives valuable training for men in industry, police and fire departments, and individuals in the home and school.

"The public health nursing service carries on an educational program if health, and promotes practical health projects for schools, communities and homes. A reserve of Red Cross nurses is maintained for service in disaster or either emergency.

"The Junior Red Cross offers local, national and international contacts for teachers and pupils, thus giving new meaning to studies of geography and history. The training in relief and humanitarian work affords an invaluable training for community service for future citizens.

"Volunteer services include production of garments and other relief essentinals, motor and canteen corps units, staff assistance corps; trained workers for all types of specific services, for emergency or routine chapter activities.

"Red Cross membership dollars buy these services for any chapter, any community. The County Chapter will shortly begin a canvass to urge that the whole community unite in giving a larger membership, and thus a larger opportunity, for the Red Cross in this community."

UNDER THE COURT HOUSE DOME

By Berenice Mc Lerran

So far, the marble machines in this city are still bringing in the nickles and officers have not ordered them to be taken from the business places. It is noticed that in other counties the courts are ruling the marble machines to be gambling devices and ordering them to be banished. But the marble machine owners and operators are fighting to have these machines legalized.

The marble machine question is similar to the liquor question. For years liquor was fought by officers and our government. Then came the time of being a little more lenient and a beverage of 3.2 alcohol was allowed to be sold. This did not seem to satisfy. The Federal government needed revenue and a liquor tax was one way of getting it. So, the selling of intoxicated liquors under a federal law was allowed. The Federal government took the operator's money, but gave him no protection against his state and county government. Was that fair? The county tried to uphold the law and made raids on liquor places in the county. What did it amount to? One of the men operating under a federal license was tried and acquitted in this county. Cases against the others who were raided were dismissed after this county and the state went wet.

Now comes the marble machine question. For some time they operated without paying a tax. Then the government asked a tax and and the marble machine operators paid it, and they are still saying it is illegal. After all, it seems you can get by as easily operating illegally as you can legally. Don't seem to have protection either way. You pay the government and still don't get by, you do not pay the government and still don't get by.

The liquor question may be called a major evil compared to the marble machines.

A COLD caused this!

"Colds" are dangerous! Leading doctors tell us that fifty per cent of all disabling diseases START with a "common cold." Thus the cold germ becomes America's Public Health Enemy Number One.

Any sudden change in temperature as you go from a warm room into a cold one disturbs the heat-regulating apparatus of the body and makes it susceptible to cold germ attacks. Even the brief time that it takes to answer the telephone in an unheated hall is sufficient. Fight against "colds." They create a condition of depressed physical vitality which is favorable to infection and aid the progress of serious organic diseases that frequently result in death.

The common cold germ shows no favor. Invisible but dangerous, this Number One Enemy of Public Health skulks like a bandit of the night ready to rob you of good health.

If your home is inadequately heated . . . if you "huddle" in one room during winter, sudden temperature changes are unavoidable. Your family goes from an over-heated room where the temperature has climbed as much as ten degrees past the point necessary for comfort, into a cold hall or adjoining room; then shivering and chilled, they return to the heated room. This happens many times a day. Each time it happens they have made themselves susceptible to highly communicable winter diseases.

Fight colds this winter with proper ventilation and adequate heat in every room in the home.

FIRE PREVENTION

Fire is our best servant
And our cruelest master, too,
But which of these it is, you see,
Simply depends on you.

If you are careful it aids you
In almost all you do;
But if you are careless, It'll do harm
And destroy your possessions too.

So we all must be careful
And to do this in our schools
We are learning Fire Prevention
And how to obey its rules.

—Diane Luckett.

THREE CARELESS MEN

There were three men of the USA
Of learning they had great need,
For to needless fires and their control
They paid not the slightest heed.

The first explored a cellar
Where gas was inclined to leak—
He searched for it with a lighted match;
Now, of him we rarely speak.

The second man's fuse blew out one night,
So he put a penny in it.
Later in the night his home burned down
And he was found within it.

The third man went out milking
With a tiny candle light
The cow kicked over the candle
Which made the town ignite.

See what it caused by lack of care
In every inhabited place
By practically all of the people
Of every human race.

—Maxine Akers.

FIRE PREVENTION RHYMES

Little Jack Horner sat in the corner
Playing with matches all day
He burned up his home
And never more did roam,
Although it was all in play.

—Jim Baskin.

LITTLE MISS MUFFET

Little Miss Muffet sat on a tuffet,
Playing with matches one day;
Along came a mouse and set fire to the house,
And no more with matches she'll play.

LITTLE BOY BLUE

Little Boy Blue won't blow his horn.
For spontaneous combustion set fire to his corn.

—Jolene Lindle.

LITTLE JACK HORNER

Little Jack Horner
Stood in a corner
Trimming his Christmas tree;
The candles he lighted
The curtains ingited.
"Now, see what I've done," said he.

—Elaine Young.

LITTLE BOY BLUE

Little Boy Blue come blow your horn
The rats are in the matches.
Hurry before everything catches!
If you had put them away,
There would have been no fire today.

OLD MOTHER HUBBARD

Old Mother Hubbard keeps in her cupboard
Her matches as safe as can be
In a little tin box way upon the shelf
Far from children and mice you see.

—Katherine Perrin.

Miss Ada Margaret Smith, who is teaching at Kosse recently visited with her parents in Cameron.

John Calvin Haygood and Billy Wilson students of Allen Academy, Bryan, spent the week end in Cameron with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Haygood and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Wilson. John Calvin has been elected as drum major for one of the bands of the school.

I FEEL FINE

Mothers read this:

A CONSTIPATED child is so easily straightened out, it's a pity more mothers don't know the remedy.

A liquid laxative is the answer, mothers. The answer to all your worries over constipation. A liquid can be measured. The dose can be exactly suited to any age or need. Just reduce the dose each time, until the bowels are moving of their own accord and need no help.

This treatment will succeed with any child and with any adult.

Doctors use liquid laxatives. Hospitals use the liquid form. If it is best for their use, it is best for home use. And today, there are fully a million families that will have no other kind in the house.

The liquid laxative generally used is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a doctor's prescription, now so widely known that you can get it all ready for use at any drugstore.

Laxative combination folks know is trustworthy

The confidence thousands of parents have in good, old reliable, powdered Thedford's Black-Draught has prompted them to get the new Syrup of Black-Draught for their children. The grown folks stick to the powdered Black-Draught; the youngsters probably will prefer it when they outgrow their childish love of sweets. Mrs. C. W. Adams, of Murray, Ky., writes: "I have used Thedford's Black-Draught (powder) about thirteen years, taking it for biliousness. Black-Draught acts well and I am always pleased with the results. I wanted a good, reliable laxative for my children. I have found Syrup of Black-Draught to be just that."

CHAPEL PROGRAM

The pupils of the Buckholts High School were disappointed Friday when they heard that the seventh grade postponed their chapel program. It was not presented because of the absence of some of the characters. It will be given next Friday afternoon, November 1.

SCHOOL LIBRARY

The High School Library now has approximately 700 books. About one hundred and twenty five were bought last year. Of this number seventy-five were new and fifty used books, classics that were bought from a book store in Austin. The library contains books of fiction, history, biography, poetry and classics. Fairy tales and animal stories are included in the library for the grammar grade pupils. The librarians are Elvira Schiller, Effie Blanche Lawson, and Beatrice Walschak. For the past month they have been exceedingly busy re-catalogueing the books. Books by Booth Tarkington, Mark Twain, O. Henry, Hawthorne, and Gene Stratton Porter are the most popular with the students.

HALLOWEEN

Halloween is Thursday, October 31, and all the young people of Buckholts are planning to celebrate it by having a Halloween party.

It has always been the custom for someone to have a party, and the guests are asked to dress as fairies, clowns and witches or ghosts. Telling fortunes and ghost stories and bobbing for apples in tubs of water are very popular entertainments at the parties. The parties usually break up about 12 o'clock and they go to different homes, making noises and trying to frighten people. Many things are destroyed on this night but it is a night of fun and everyone is looking forward to Halloween. The eve of November 1 is called Halloween because it is the eve of the Christian festival of All Saints. In olden times people believed that October 31, eve of All Saints Day, was the time for all good and evil spirits to be on earth. The people of today do not believe in this supernatural element and so the young people try to carry on the work of the evil spirits.

ATTRACTION

ALMOST BUT NOT QUITE

Des Moines, Iowa.—An Eastern college professor is almost a "memory expert" but not quite. He recently wrote the city library stall to try to locate a certain book for him, stating he "saw the book on a library shelf in 1932, that the shelf was the northeast corner on the side by the river and that the book concerned business forecasting." He remembered all but the name of the book.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE SIXTY-FOURTH DISTRICT:

As your Representative in the Texas Legislature, I feel that it is my duty to acquaint you from time to time with my activities and plans.

In recent days there has been much criticism of the Legislature for its failure to stay at work and to pass important legislation. In this connection I wish to state that my record of attendance shows that I have been on hand ready and anxious to work on State's business; that my own desire has been to finish up our duties and go home and that no failure to secure a quorum for business has been caused by my absence.

The one great accomplishement of the First Called Session was the passage of the "Chain Store" tax measure which will not only give the little man in business a chance against the Wall Street-controlled chains, but will also bring in much needed revenue for our State Treasury. I supported this measure right down the line, and I am proud to have a chance to help put this law on the books.

I am one of the signers of Rep. Franklin Spears' bill to tax sulphur $2.25 a ton, and I am going to fight with all my energy to see this bill enacted into law. We have too long let the Sulphur Companies, owned by Andrew Mellon of Pittsburgh, drain our precious natural resources of sulphur by paying only a very small tax. We must stop it. I pledge my every effort to see that it is stopped, and to see that we get a fair, just tax from these Mellon owned interests.

I bitterly oppose a sales tax because I believe it is a tax on poverty, on the poor people, as they are already overloaded with taxes. Why should we levy a "Sales Tax" When Texas has the greatest wealth of natural resources of any territory in the world—oil, gas, sulphur, quicksilver and many others? Let us tax these resources, most of which are consumed outside of Texas, and if we will overcome the powerful oil and sulphur and gas lobbies there will be no need for a "Sales Tax."

I favor strong "Utility" regulation and an increase in the tax on Utilities. Utility Companies enjoy many special privileges from the State and from the people, and they must give us more in the way of taxes and lower rates. We cannot afford to have the people of Texas drained in order to swell the fortunes of the Insulls and the Morgans and the Mellons. To a strict regulation of rate and equitable taxation of utilities I pledge my every vote.

On the matter of "old age pensions," in which we are all justly interested, we have been working hard. The pension problem is a difficult one, requiring careful study, because it is new and we have very few precedents to aid us in our deliberations. However, it is my desire to pass on an "old age pension law" which will be just, adequate and fair to those old people and to the citizenship generally, of our state. The result of our work I am confident, will be a Pension Law which will be satisfactory and workable for our people.

I want to point out to you again that as your Representative I have been on the job trying to work in your behalf and that I am not in any manner responsible for the slowness of the Legislature in passing important measures submitted to them.

My friends, as your Represetative I wish to represent your wishes and your views, and I have sincerely tried to do just that. I can represent you if you will tell me what your views are. Whether you acquaint me with your views in person or by letter, be assured that I shall give my most earnest consideration to your wishes and shall work hard to perform the duty for which I was elected——to represent you.

Sincerely yours,
George Mayo Newton.
